

Presented at the FIG Congress 2022,
11-15 September 2022 in Warsaw, Poland

WARSAW
CONGRESS 2022

XXVII FIG CONGRESS

11-15 SEPTEMBER 2022
Warsaw, Poland

Volunteering for the future –
Geospatial excellence for a better living

Assessing Land Administration Systems and their Legal Frameworks: A Constitutional Focus

Kehinde BABALOLA
Simon HULL
Jennifer WHITTAL
South Africa

ORGANISED BY

PLATINUM SPONSORS

This paper set to answer the following questions:

What should LAS and law reform be?

How are pro-poor approaches included in LAS?

How is a context-specific framework developed?

What constitutes pro-poor reform in a LAS and legal framework?

What is the way forward?

Land Administration System

Land Tenure Security

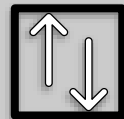

Legal Framework

Constitution

Policy and legislation

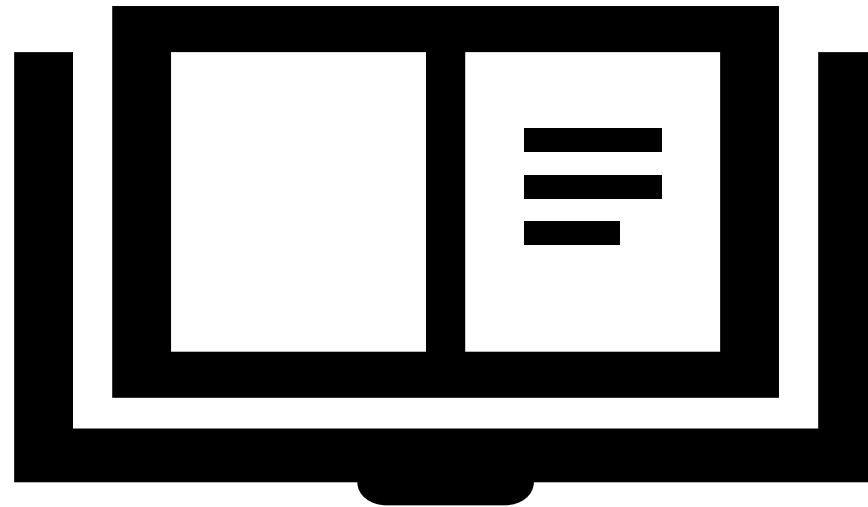

Rules and regulations

Contracts

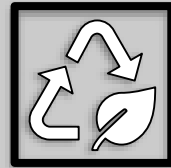

Constitution

What should LAS and law reform be?

Significant

Sustainable

How is pro-poor approaches included in LAS?

Allowing a Flexible Legal Framework

How is a context-specific framework developed?

METHODOLOGY

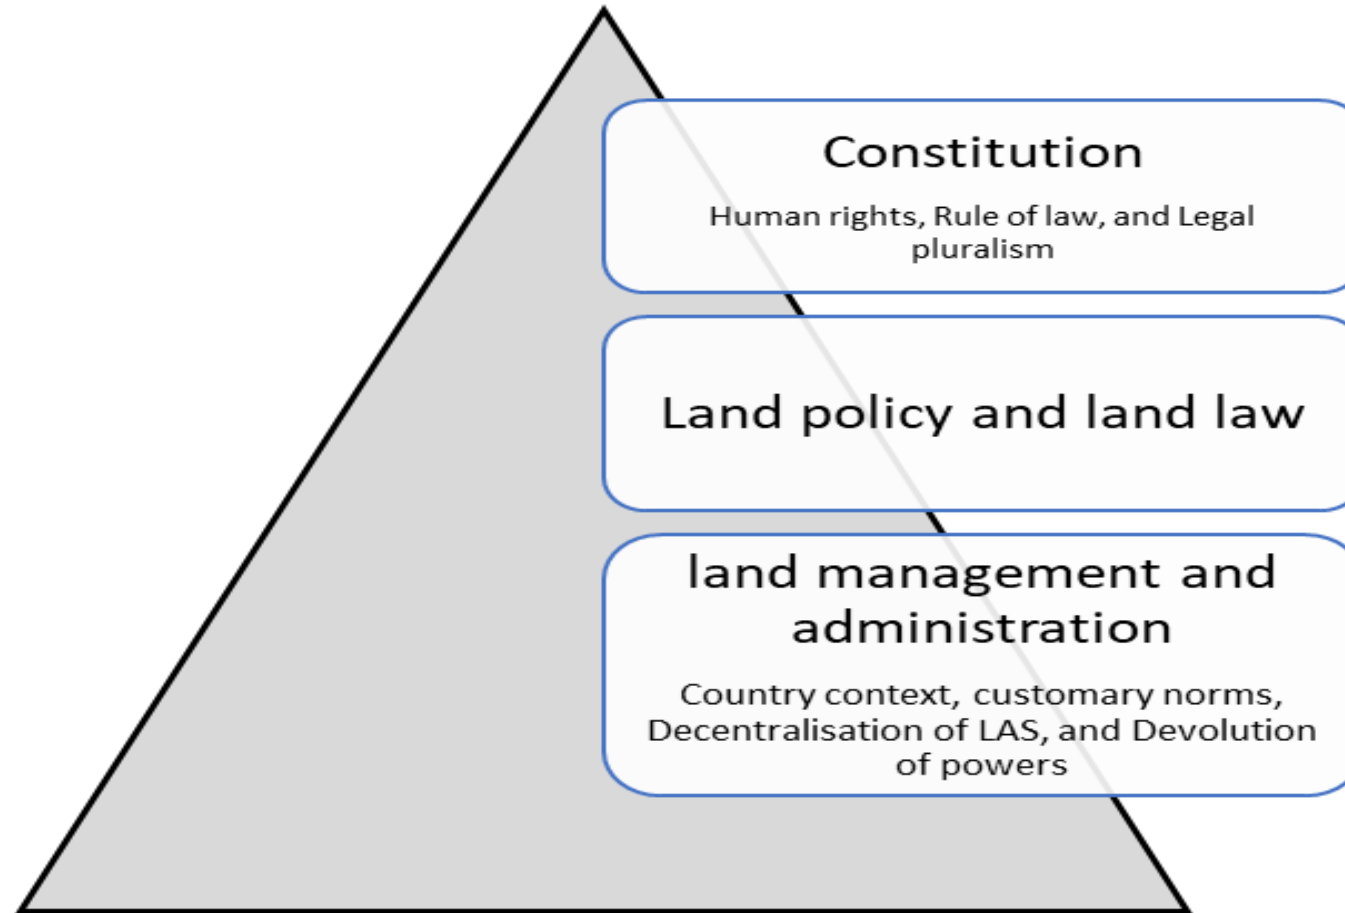

Secondary data – text-based approach

Saturation

Pro-poor reform in LAS and legal framework?

What is the way forward?

- Socio-institutional approach to land administration

Take Home Message ...

- Legitimacy of customary legal framework
- Pro-poor principles - from the constitution.
- Human rights, rule of law, and legal pluralism success, significance and sustainability